Marines Flown To Thailand To Back Demand For Ship's Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will fly Marines to Thailand to underscore President Ford's demand for the return of a U.S. cargo ship seized by Cambodia, Pentagon sources said today.

However, in Bangkok, Prime Minister Kukrit Pramoj said Thailand will not permit the United States to use Thai air bases for military action against Cambodia, including any armed attempt to secure the return of the American vessel.

A group of about 150 Marines will be airlifted from the U.S. naval base at Subic Bay in the Philippines to the U.S. air base at Utao in southern Thailand, the Pentagon sources said. They said another 1,000 Marines have been alerted on Okinawa for possible movement later.

Verbal orders which went out from the Pentagon this morning apparently were changed later to scale down the immediate size of the Marines movement.

At an impromptu news conference in Bangkok, Kukrit said in response to a question about the seizure of the American ship: "We will not allow the American troops to use our soil for any war. We have enough trouble with Asian neighbors now."

He apparently referred to the 27,000 troops the United States currently has stationed in Thailand. Kukrit could not be reached for comment afterward about the reported airlift of Marines.

As Ford called a meeting of the National Security Council to discuss the ship's capture, there was no immediate word about what use would be made of the Marines once they reached Thailand.

But the move apparently was designed to back up the President's warning of possible "serious consequences" if the new Cambodian government does not release the merchant ship Mayaguez and its 39-man crew.

Asked about the report that Marines will go to Thailand, White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said, "We cannot discuss any possible military movements." Asked if Ford was considering a military response, Nessen replied: "I can't talk about that right now."

Nessen said he knew nothing to confirm a report that some of the crewmen on the Mayaguez might have been wounded when the ship was fired on during the capture. He said he also could not confirm whether the crew had been taken off the vessel.

The White House had said earlier that the Mayaguez, seized Monday about eight miles from a small rock island, Poulo Wai, in the Gulf of Thailand, had been moved to the island of Koh Tang, some 30 miles from the Cambodian coast, under escort of two Cambodian gunboats.

Nessen said the State Department was trying to determine whether Koh Tang, also a small island, was among those whose ownership is being contested by Cambodia and Vietnam. The State Department has said Poulo Wai is one of the contested islands.

The United States was working through intermediary countries to obtain release of the merchant ship, but also was preparing a number of military options.

Nessen declined to talk about the diplomatic contacts, but said Ford had been in close contact throughout Monday night and early today with Lt. Gen. Brent Scowcroft, deputy assistant for national security affairs.

Candidates To Appear At Stump-Speaking Saturday

A total of 17 state, area and local candidates on the primary election ballot in Murray and Calloway County have indicated they will share the stump and discuss the issues at the old-fashioned political speaking on the court square Saturday, May 17.

Mrs. Mary Jane Littleton, chairman of the sponsoring Calloway County Democratic Executive Committee, said everyone on the ballot is invited to participate. Candidates who had indicated their intention to speak by Monday are: City council — Loyd Arnold, Ruby Hale, Roy Harmon, Gary Haverstock and Dr. C. C. Lowry.

Circuit court clerk — T. C. Collie, Jo Crass, Earl Tabers and Bob Nannery.

State representative — Edward Overbey.

State senator — Ronnie Jackson, Dr. Harry M. Sparks and Richard Weisenberger.

Commonwealth attorney — Ron Christopher.

Governor — Richard Lewis speaking in behalf of Gov. Julian Carroll.

Lt. governor — Tommy D. Taylor and Charles Outland speaking in behalf of State Sen. Bill Sullivan.

Attorney general — Jim D. Robinson. Mrs. Littleton added that other candidates on the ballot who wish to participate should contact her or Mrs. Lochie Hart immediately for further details.

Tickets for ice cream and cake are being sold for $1 each by members of the committee and other people in the Calloway County Democratic organization. Ice cream and cake will be served beginning at 6 p. m., with the speaking scheduled at 7 p. m.

Entertainment, also to begin at 6 p. m., will include a Senior Citizens Band, a singing group of seventh grade girls from North Elementary School, and young David Lamb, a second grader at North Elementary, who will be featured as a soloist.

Members of the girls' singing group under the direction of B. J. Berrill are Angela Manning, Jane Greer, Glynis Taber, Tammie Craus and Laura Fones.

Calloway County Judge Robert O. Miller will be the master of ceremonies for the program, and Rev. C. E. Timberlake, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Karen Jones Awarded Scholarship At MSU

Karen Elizabeth Jones of 203 North 13th Street in Murray, a graduating senior at Murray High School, has been awarded a $150 scholarship by the College of Business and Public Affairs in the area of political science for the 1975-76 school year.

Miss Jones plans to major in political science as a pre-law student at Murray State.

Her activities at Murray High have included Future Homemakers of America, chorus, Flag Corps, Student Council, French Club, and prom co-chairman. She has participated in the Regional Speech Tournament four years and the State Speech Tournament three years. She won first place in art and second place in testing in French at the Foreign Language Festival at Murray State this year.

USDA Announces Determinations On 1975 Crop Tobacco

The U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) announced determinations made on the types of Fire-cured and Dark Air-cured tobacco.

Marketing quotas will remain in effect on the 1975 crop of Kentucky-Tennessee Fire-cured (Types 22 & 23) tobacco and Dark Air-cured (Types 35 & 36) tobacco, and there will be no change in the national acreage allotments of 33,072 acres and 12,025 acres, respectively, announced in January.

These allotments are about 12.5 percent and 10 percent, respectively, larger than the 1974 crop allotments. Producers of these types of tobacco have indicated that they plan increased production in 1975.

Department officials pointed out that the determinations made for the types of tobacco are in line with the recommendations received from producers and others. These types of tobacco are used primarily in the manufacture of chewing tobacco, snuff, and cigars in the U. S., while substantial quantities of unmanufactured leaf are exported.

Manning Requests That Lots Be Kept Mowed In The City

Murray City Police Chief Brent Manning has requested that Murray residents please keep their lots mowed this summer. Manning said that this year, as in past years, some lots, especially vacant houses or lots, have been left neglected.

He pointed out that city ordinances forbid this, and that police officers must enforce the ordinances.

Teachers Salary Schedules Released

Starting salaries this year for Kentucky's public-school classroom teachers with bachelor's degrees and no experience range from $6,325 to $8,150, according to a new Kentucky Education Association Research Unit publication.

In the Calloway School system, the highest salary scheduled is $8,360 for Rank III teachers; $8,890 for Rank II teachers; and $9,440 for Rank I teachers.

Most Kentucky teachers are in the Rank III category, which means they have a bachelor's degree. The state-mandated minimum this year for Rank III teachers with no experience is $6,175.20. This is 93 percent of the state's foundation program allotment of $6,640 for such teachers.

Starting salaries for Rank II teachers—those with master's degrees—range from $6,700 in Carroll County and Clinton County to $8,800 in Fort Thomas.

For Rank I teachers—those with a master's degree plus 30 approved college-credit hours beyond the master's—starting salaries this year range from $7,090 in Campbell County to $9,325 in Fort Thomas.

The highest scheduled salary a Kentucky teacher at the Rank I level can earn in a local school system ranges from $9,430 in Monroe County after 10 years of experience to $14,214 in Jefferson County after 15 years of experience.

In the Murray City School system, the highest salary scheduled is $8,790 for Rank III teachers; $9,585 for Rank II teachers; and $10,077 for Rank I teachers.

The lowest salary scheduled in the Calloway system is $6,530 for Rank III; $7,040 for Rank II; and $7,740 for Rank I.

The minimum salary scheduled in Murray for Rank III is $6,720; and $7,152 and $7,653 for Ranks II and I respectively. The differences in maximum and minimum salaries are computed according to length of service in the school systems, according to the bulletin.

The bulletin, prepared by Floye Perkins, KEA assistant director of public relations and research, lists these median minimum and maximum salaries based on an analysis of salary schedules from all Kentucky school systems (half the systems are above the median and half are below the median):

Median minimum—Rank III, $6,610; Rank II, $7,200; Rank I, $7,750.

Median maximum—Rank III, $8,610; Rank II, $9,185; Rank I, $9,725.

Kentucky's average salary for classroom teachers this year is estimated at $8,890, ranking the state 46th in the nation. The national average is $11,513. The average salary for teachers in the seven states bordering Kentucky is estimated at $11,025.

The salary schedules bulletin is available at $1.50 from the KEA Research Unit, Division of Public Relations and Research, 101 West Walnut Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40202.

MSU News May File Suit Against Regents

A suit may be filed to force the release of salary schedules for Murray State University faculty members, according to the editor of the Murray State News.

Steven Lowery, editor-in-chief of the MSU student newspaper, has said he has attempted for several weeks to obtain a published list of salaries, but has been turned down because university officials claim they are confidential.

The issue came up indirectly at Saturday's Board of Regents meeting, when James Davis, an Owensboro banker who was chairman of the board's budget committee, was asked by another board member why the individual salary schedules are not public records.

Davis said at the board meeting that copies of the university budget are a public record and filed in the school library, but that the salary roster is not public record and "shouldn't be released." When asked to explain the statement, Davis said that the salary schedule "is a matter between the individual and the university and is nobody's damn business."

Lowery, who says he wants the list because he has several ideas for stories for the student paper, has said he may seek an injunction in Calloway Circuit Court to force the MSU Board of Regents to release the list of salaries.

Group Expresses Concern Over Overexpansion Of Ag Programs

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Concern was expressed Monday by a group of agricultural leaders that agricultural education programs may have been over-expanded in the state's universities.

There were 15 agricultural leaders and four consultants hired by the state Council on Public Higher Education at a meeting here, talking about development of a comprehensive state plan for public higher education.

A final plan, due for completion later this year, will cover several areas including agricultural education.

Kentucky's regional universities may be misleading some students by not having qualified faculty members teaching agricultural programs, Ivan Jett of Georgetown said.

"I also can't help but wonder if every university needs its own farm," he added. Jett said many schools don't have adequate staffs to operate farms but the universities usually argue that the farms are needed for demonstration purposes.

Local DECA Students Receive Honors At National Convention

One of the Distributive Education students at the Murray Area Vocational Education Center received a sixth place award at the National Career Development Conference at Hollywood, Florida, May 10 and a former DE student at the Murray Vocational Center was elected National DECA Alumni Secretary-Treasurer.

Rhonda Towery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Towery, received sixth place in her Studies in Marketing-Automotive & Petroleum Industry Manual. She conducted a research study on the preferences of used car customers and the used car industry in Murray. She is enrolled in the Distributive Education program at the Murray Vocational center and is a senior at Calloway County High School.

Roderick Reed, son of Mrs. Orea Nell Bumphis, was elected National DECA Alumni Secretary-Treasurer by the Alumni voting delegates from throughout the country. The Alumni DECA Division was established to allow these people who had been in a DECA program before and who had graduated an opportunity to continue assisting DECA activities.

Gale Ahart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ahart, served as one of Kentucky's thirteen voting delegates.

Risa Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe, placed in the finals for her Studies in Marketing-Specialty Store Manual. She conducted a study on the preferences of photographic equipment and its customers.

Gail Sheridan, daughter of Mrs. Jean Norsworthy and Mr. Ernie Sheridan, placed in the finals for her Area of Distribution Manual. She compiled a study on the florist industry and its operation.

Melissa Bucy, daughter of Mrs. Kathleen Green and Mr. Allen Bucy; and Debbie McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd McClure, served as campaigners and hospitality guides for Kentucky.

The group was accompanied to Florida by their advisor, Mrs. Vicki Shell.

Lo-Cal Foods
Vegetables are not only high in nutrition but also tend to be low in calories. Without added butter or sauces, many vegetables supply fewer than 50 calories per serving — few more than 100. For example, a 1/2 cup of cut green beans, broccoli, spinach, or zucchini squash contributes only about 25 calories.

Rule for Nurses, Circa 1880

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I enjoyed your column in which you reprinted "Rules for Female Teachers in 1915." Perhaps you would enjoy reading the rules for female nurses published in 1880. Nurses were told they must:

First: Bring in a scuttle of coal each day.

Second: Report every day at 7 a. m., and leave at 8 p. m., except on the Sabbath "on which day you will be off from 12 noon until 2 p. m."

Third: Graduate nurses in good standing will be given an evening off each week for church services.

Fourth: Any nurse who smokes, uses liquor, goes to the beauty shop or frequents dance halls will give the director a good reason to suspect her worth, her intentions and integrity.

Fifth: The nurse who performs faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of $.05 a day, providing there are no hospital debts outstanding.

A footnote, Abby: To illustrate how much progress has been made in achieving political and economic justice, in 1845 three young women who were employed as copyists in the U. S. Patent Office were threatened with loss of their jobs.

A member of Congress wrote to the secretary of the Interior, Robert McClelland, on behalf of one of the copyists, and received the following response:

"There is every disposition on my part to do anything for the lady in question except to retain her or any of the other females who work in the rooms of the Patent Office. I have no object to the employment of females in the performance of such duties as they are competent to discharge, but there is such obvious impropriety in the mixing of sexes within the walls of a public office that I have determined to arrest the practice."

The lady in question lost her job, anyway. But she later distinguished herself in a job considered exclusively male. The lady's name was Clara Barton. Her work on the Civil War battlefields and as founder of the American Red Cross make her one of the most illustrious women in our nation's history.

Very truly yours,
JENNINGS RANDOLPH, U.S. SENATOR
WEST VIRGINIA

DEAR SENATOR RANDOLPH: Thank you for a dandy contribution to my column. Your interest in equal rights for women is not surprising, since you co-sponsored the Equal Rights Amendment, which I hope the necessary 38 states will ratify.

DEAR ABBY: If you had a choice, would you rather have your kids hooked on drugs or alcohol? Please be honest.

BERKELEY SOPH

DEAR SOPH: If I had a choice, I'd rather have them hooked on nothing! Why assume kids have to be hooked on SOMETHING?

CONFIDENTIAL TO JINNIE: Wear pants to the office, only if you are sure that the end justifies the means. If you don't have a three-way mirror, ask an honest friend.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

By MRS. W. P. WILLIAMS

Last week I visited a veritable fairyland. My son and I went out to the Porter home on the old Springville road. Mrs. Felix Porter and Mrs. Breedlove live there and Mrs. Breedlove met us at the door.

The house has been completely restored to its original beauty and the living room is furnished in quiet elegance so restful in an atmosphere of gracious living.

But the gardens were the attraction for me. Symmetrically laid out on each side of the home and in the rear, we found masses of magnificent azaleas, rhododendrons and dozens of blooming plants of every hue with quantities of white to accentuate the color, and clumps of green to soften the picture.

An ancient cedar tree, older than the house itself, stands guard at the driveway. Wide expanses of lawn are bordered with beauty. Fine shrubs form a background for the flower beds that are beautifully kept, showing loving care at all times. Mrs. Porter laid out the plan for the flower beds and charted them herself.

On the right are the most luxurious azaleas I have seen. There are pink ones in varying shades, bright red ones and lovely salmon shades with yellow ones here and there.

Mingled with them are the rhododendrons. The prettiest one is a brilliant scarlet contrasting so wonderfully with the deep green foliage. Then there the pink and shaded ones with tulips poking their heads out unexpectedly adding to the picture.

At the rear of the home is a circular beauty spot with a fountain and wrought-iron archways over pathways. Running roses climb over the arches.

We walked back to see the cold-frames where hundreds of azalea cuttings are being readied for next year's planting. Then we followed a path past the rose garden around the other side of the house to a long curved flower bed of absolute perfection.

What a variety! There were iris just beginning to bloom; there was Oxalis in dainty clumps and candytuft and Heuchera and day lilies and columbine and hollyhock and others, all either just beginning to bloom or with bloom stalks that come in later in the season. I want to go back later in the summer for the picture will change entirely to different color, but at any time of the year it will always be beautiful.

One appeal the place had for me was not only the magnificence of the blossoms, but the careful planning that went before the planting. There is nothing like it in Henry County, and it was a most delightful experience for me and my son.

My only regret was that Mrs. Porter was not at home. I would like so much to talk to her and find out about some of the plants I could not recognize. I will long remember the picture of the gorgeous azaleas and rhododendrons set off so perfectly with greenery and trees as a background.

My thanks to Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Breedlove for a wonderful morning of browsing amid that fairyland.

Vows Read In Garden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis C. Krol

Miss Mary Ann Ledford and Dennis C. Krol were joined in marriage Saturday, April 26, in the garden of Mrs. F. E. Crawford, 1402 West Main, Murray.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ledford of Route 5, Cadiz. Mr. Krol's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Krol of Detroit, Mich.

Rev. W. Edd Glover officiated at the wedding.

Bride's Dress
Escorted by the brother, Richard Ledford, the bride wore an empire A-line gown of candlelight silk organza over satin, fashioned with leg of mutton sleeves and a high neckline. A wide band of candlelight satin accented the empire waist and fastened in the back with a bow and long pointed streamer. The silk organza overlay was gathered in a ruffle at the sleeves and hemline that swept to a train in back. The neckline, waist bodice and lower front was embellished with floral lace appliques sprinkled in seed pearls.

The bride carried a lace handkerchief that belonged to the groom's mother. Her only jewelry was a necklace borrowed from the groom's sister, Mrs. Donald Orzel. Mrs. Krol wore a headpiece with a small cap of candlelight lace trimmed with seed pearls and shoulder length illusion. She carried a garden arm bouquet of yellow roses, white carnations, gypsophelia, plamoses and leatherleaf tied with yellow satin and white wedding lace bows and streamers.

Mrs. Terrance Dean Duncan of Murray served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Lolita Kroll, sister of the groom from Windsor, Ontario; and Carrie Lane of Murray. They carried arm bouquets of yellow carnations, gypsophelia, leatherleaf and plamoses tied with yellow satin bow and streamers.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore yellow dresses with dotted swiss overlay fashioned similar to the bride's gown. The head dress was a wide brimmed straw hat with a wide band of green and yellow ribbons that tied in a bow in the back and fell in streamers to the waistline.

Thomas F. Curry of Memphis, Tenn., was best man for Mr. Krol. Ushers were Donald Orzel of Southfield, Mich., and Grant Parsons of Dayton, Ohio.

The couple gathered under a wedding arch that was decorated with ivy and smilax. An arch trellis and well were decorated with ivy and smilax. Sheppard's crooks were used to mark relatives' seats, which were decorated with white gladioli, leatherleaf ferns, cushion cysanthemums and white satin bows and streamers. The bird bath overflowed with white gladioli and smilax arrangement. A white wicker tea cart was used as a register table and was kept by Miss Suzie Morris of Cadiz.

The bride's mother wore a mint green long crepe gown with beige accessories. The groom's mother wore a peach color long gown with peach accessories.

Honor guests were Mrs. F. E. Crawford and Denise K. Ray, grandfather of the groom from Ontario, Canada.

Nuptial music was provided by Harold Blair and Peter Lund. The processional was the Wagner Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" while the recessional Mendelssohn wedding march from a "Midsummer Night Dream" was played.

Reception
The reception was held at the Woman's Club House, Murray, following the wedding.

The hall was decorated by a mantle arrangement of white gladioli and yellow daisy. The reception book was kept by Mrs. Frank Scott, cousin of the bride, of Princeton. Mrs. Pete Farmer, provided the music.

The three tiered wedding cake was separated with columns, bride and groom placed between and cake was topped with yellow roses and daisies. Two three tier glass candelabra were placed on either side of cake which were decorated with ivy and smilax.

Following a honeymoon trip to Quebec, Canada, the couple will live in Frankfort.

Mrs. Krol is a graduate of Trigg County High School and Murray School of Practical Nursing. Her husband graduated from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University.

Prenuptial events
Showers were given in honor of the bride prior to her wedding. One was held at the home of Mrs. Barbara Owen, Murray, with Ms. Owen and Ms. Carrie Lane, Murray, acting as hostesses. The other shower and luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Orzel, Southfield, Mich., with Ms. Lolita Krol and Mrs. Orzel acting as hostesses.

A bridal luncheon was also given in honor of the bride at the home of Mrs. Wells Purdom, Jr., Murray. Mrs. Purdom and Mrs. Nix Crawford served as hostesses.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. F. E. Crawford, Murray, and Mrs. Mary Daniel, Camden, Ark., at the home of Mrs. Crawford on Friday evening for members of the bridal party and close friends.

A wedding dinner was held at Lake Barkley Lodge following the reception for immediate family and wedding party. The head table was decorated with white gladioli and yellow daisies.

Williford Home Scene Of Meet

The Harris Grove Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Joe Williford with the president, Mrs. Carmon D'Angelo presided and Mrs. Alfred Taylor giving the devotion.

Mrs. Bill Wrather led in group singing and Mrs. James Dixon read the minutes.

Lessons on "Lighting" by Mrs. Marvin Parks and "Mixing Old and New Furniture" by Mrs. Bill Wrather and Mrs. Marvin Parks were given.

Landscape notes were by Mrs. Clifton Jones.

The group will meet May 14 at the Ellis Community Center at ten a. m.

Lesson Given At Club Meet

Mrs. Raymond Story opened her home for the April meeting of the South Pleasant Grove Homemakers Club with Mrs. Viola McReynolds giving the devotion. Mrs. Max Parks, president, presided.

"Mixing Old and New Furniture" was the main lesson presented by Mrs. Max Parks, assisted by Mrs. Jimmy Erwin. Landscape notes were given by Mrs. Dennis Boyd, and the recreational period was directed by Mrs. Bob Orr. Refreshments were served.

Also present were Mesdames Luther Downs, Jackie Butterworth, Gerald Paschall, Hester H. Brown, -Ellis Ross Paschall, Mina Craig, Milford Orr, and Clifton E. Jones. A new member was Mrs. Ronnie Jackson and a visitor was Miss Sherri Gallimore.

Golden Age Club Has Luncheon At Social Hall; Officers Elected

The Golden Age Club held its regular monthly meeting on Friday, May 3, in the social hall of the First United Methodist Church.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon with the invocation being given by Paul Kingins.

Mrs. Joe Gertzen, club president, presided. Officers reelected for the coming year were Mrs. Gertzen, president, Mrs. Ruby Harrell, vice-president, Mrs. Gussie Adams, secretary, Mrs. Bryan Tolley, treasurer, and Mrs. Norman Klapp and Mrs. Sadie Harrell.

World Wide Club Holds Meeting

The April meeting of the World Wide Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Max Hughes with Mrs. Michael Shelton presiding and Mrs. Barry Cain calling the roll.

Mrs. Dale Bucy presented the lesson on "Furnishing Your Home." She discussed periods and styles of furniture and mixing old and new pieces. She showed several pictures of furnished rooms and asked each member to name a mistake in the room or the type of furniture used.

A work day for Hong Kong stools at Mrs. Hughes' home was planned. Refreshments were served.

Members present were Mrs. Bucy, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. Michael Morton, Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Hughes, and Mrs. Randy Shelton.

publicity.

Attending the meeting were Otis Harrison and Jesse Ross; Messrs and Mesdames Bryan Tolley, Norman Klapp, Lawrence Wheeler, Joe Gertzen, Will Rose, Clarence Horton, Roger Burgoine; Mesdames Meme Mattingly, Ruby Barnes, Robbie Harrison, Clista Clanton, Willie Mae Morton, Mattie Parker, Tennessee Outland, Thelma Parker, Gladys Hale, Gloy Caldwell, Frances Beach, Eulalya Johnson, Modena Butterworth, Elsie Lovett, Eunice Shekell, Sadie Harrell, Birdie Parker, Flora Ford, Miss Erin Montgomery, members, and Mrs. Nettie Beach, new member.

Guests were Kaye Peebles, Dorolyn Lanier, Martha Shirley, and Mickey Carpenter. The next regular meeting will be held Friday, June 6, with Paul Kingins, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Klapp, Mrs. Ruby Harrell, and Mrs. Elsie Lovett as hosts and hostesses.

Kerry Wyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayburn Wyatt, has been selected as Member-of-the-Month for April by the Calloway County Chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Kerry was selected as a result of having the regional winning entry in soybean production which will now be rated on the state level. Kerry is a junior at Calloway County High School.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) Discretion and secrecy may be your most important tools if you are aiming at some unusual business or financial objective. Don't telegraph your moves.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21) If well-planned in advance, you could now launch a new venture, but don't rush headlong into uncharted seas.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21) Be extremely careful to differentiate between rumor and fact, not to accept hearsay as accurate information. Some deceptive trends prevail.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23) A day in which your innate competence and good judgment will prove profitable. A fine period in which to initiate new methods, present unusual ideas.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23) You have more working for you now than you may realize. A person of influence is working for you in the background, and you will soon profit from some efforts you have long forgotten.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) A better day than you may anticipate. You may have to ferret out some opportunities for yourself and figure out the most advantageous way of handling them — but this you can do.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Rationalize, think things over logically before making important moves — and just about every move WILL be important now.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 23) Your senses, perception and spirits should be buoyed now. You can do a great deal with little material, with even less than others to start with. Make the most of a good day!

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) You should have little trouble now in obtaining the attention and cooperation you need. Especially favored: finances, business negotiations, organizational matters.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Mixed planetary influences. Orient self carefully. A good period for business and job matters but unusual tact may be required if personal affairs are to run smoothly.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Avoid a tendency toward unconventionality. Don't join those who are indiscreet or you could become involved in situations to be later regretted.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) All things may not go exactly as you desire, but you will find many advantages, anyway — if you look carefully in all areas.

YOU BORN TODAY are an exceedingly sympathetic individual; have an empathy to others and instinctively understand their wants and needs. Because of this, you would do extremely well in the fields of medicine, nursing, psychology or sociology. Highly idealistic and imaginative, you would also make an outstanding artist (in almost any field) but could especially excel in painting, sculpture, music or writing. Your love of beauty extends to the outdoors, and you would make an excellent gardener, landscape artist or botanist. Try to curb tendencies toward doubt and anxiety over your efforts. When the Taurean is at his best, no one can surpass him. Birthdate of: G.D. Fahrenheit, physicist; Hall (Thomas Henry) Caine, novelist, poet.

OAKS WINNERS

Winners at the May Seventh session of bridge at the Oaks Country Club were Rowena Emerson, high, and Doris Rose, low, according to Freda Butterworth, hostess.

Color Saves Fuel

Light colored walls, rugs, draperies and other furnishings help save energy by reducing the amount of artificial light you need indoors.

Of Interest To Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens will have a potluck luncheon at the Ellis Community Center on Thursday, May 15, at twelve noon. Each one attending is asked to donate twenty-five cents to help pay for the plates, cups, sugar, etc.

Members of the potluck committee are Treva Washer, Raymond Ralph, Margaret Ralph, Pat Swisher, Arthur Lynch, Marguerite Lynch, Obara Stagner, Mary Ball, and Ola Marose. Those on the decoration committee are Thyra Crawford, Amy Wilson, Lillie Farris, and Florine Erwin.

Vary with Variety

Variety meats include liver, brains, heart, kidneys, sweetbreads, tongue and tripe. These meats are usually good buys because they are excellent sources of many essential nutrients, are often economical and offer interesting variety for the menu. Since variety meats are more perishable than other meats, they should be cooked and served soon after purchase.

BIRTHS

HENDERSON GIRL
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henderson of Cadiz are the parents of a baby girl, Tara Dray, weighing three pounds twelve ounces, born on Friday, April 4, at the Jenny Stuart Memorial Hospital, Hopkinsville. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Boyd, all of Cadiz. Maternal great grandmother is Mrs. Henry Boyd of Murray.

Testing Team Scheduled

By GEORGE DOWDY

A testing team and psychologist from The Charles L. Shedd Reading Research Foundation, Lafayette, Louisiana will be at the First United Methodist Church in Mayfield, Kentucky, May 20, 21 and 22 holding a diagnostic clinic for children with learning disabilities. Researchers have found that ten percent to twenty percent of the total population is dyslexic in varying degrees.

Your child may have a learning disability if you can answer yes to most of the following questions.

—Can your child be called a poor reader?

—Does he leave out the small words?

—Does he call w for saw?

—Does he reverse b for d, p for q, m for w, e for i, o for u, 3 for E, and right from left?

—Does he have a short attention span?

—Does he have trouble remembering what he had for lunch?

—Does he forget directions?

—Does he have trouble organizing his chores?

—Does he daydream?

—Does he bring home his homework assignments and you do the work? If so, why? It is his homework not yours. All the teacher receives the next morning is your work not your child's.

Do you pressure your child about his grades? If you do and he has a learning disability you are pushing your child into an emotional problem. Your child knows he is different. No professional person has to label him. He labeled himself and so has his playmates.

Parents can you imagine what it is like to spend 6 hours in school when you are not able to follow the teachers directions and not able to complete your work on time? Your child may be dropping his pencil when it is time for him to read hoping the teacher will pass on the next student, getting a sick stomach or a headache so he won't have to try to do work he doesn't understand and fail again.

Your child didn't just get this problem. He had it from birth and from that day on he has been trying to cover up this disability. As their intelligence is from average to very high they master the cover up at an early age. After one failure after another the desire to learn dies.

It is not the teacher's responsibility to diagnose your child. It is your responsibility as a parent to have your child diagnosed by a qualified psychologist and learn how you can help your child with his learning disability. He can grow up to be a honest, productive person rather than a failure all his life and never be able to achieve a goal. A large percentage of these students have trouble with school personnel and become a menace to society ending up in juvenile court. Many begin using drugs or other crutches early in life. Is this what you want for your child?

This Diagnostic Clinic is open for adults also. In January, 20 adults were tested by the clinic and 16 of them were dyslexic or hyperkinetic. These were people who wanted to know their problem that had nagged them all their lives. These adults are receiving remediation and are very pleased with their progress. As one person put it: It is so nice to read and understand what has been read. His whole life has changed. For an appointment call 247-5678 days or 247-1554 after 5 p. m.

Sincerely,
George W. Dowdy

Letter To The Editor

Supports Candidate

Dear Editor:

This letter is written to express my interest in your local Democratic Primary for Circuit Court Clerk. I have two reasons for writing. First, I was born and raised in Murray and Calloway County and at one time worked in the Circuit Clerk's office, and secondly because my sister, Frances Wilson Shea, is one of the candidates seeking that office.

It was a little over forty years ago that Claude Miller made me a Deputy Circuit Court Clerk, and I worked for him on a part-time basis through several terms of Court. It was during those years that the Clerk's office first began issuing Driver's License, and this alone was the first contact most people had with the Circuit Clerk's office. During my service with Mr. Miller I became well aware of the importance of that office, not only from the standpoint of handling the Court's legal matters, but also the necessity of rendering the best service possible to all the people of Calloway County. They deserve no less, because after all they pay all the bills - the Clerk works for them.

Many people have suggested various qualities a person selected for public office should have. Such things are always talked about at every election, but they must honestly be considered in order to make a wise choice. I would like to list what I consider to be the three most important ones. First is Competency. This comes from having the knowledge, training and experience for every task required of the job. It also includes the proper attitude, temperament and skill to get the job done. Second is Integrity. I associate integrity with complete honesty, truthfulness and dependability, all of which are traits required in every public officeholder. The Third must be Courage. If a person has good judgement, is competent and is honest, he or she must still have the courage to stand up unafraid of their convictions.

Most everyone who knows Frances Wilson Shea will easily recognize the qualities I have mentioned. She has demonstrated these qualities throughout her thirty-two years of business experience. Much of this experience includes positions as Legal Secretary, Quarterly Court Clerk, Deputy Circuit Court Clerk, and for the past seven years Court Examiner for Calloway Circuit Court. She is already familiar with the details and procedures of the office, and the various problems and difficulties which can arise. I feel that the voters of Murray and Calloway County are very fortunate to have Frances as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, and I am proud to recommend her for that office.

Sincerely,
George Robert Wilson

Bird Watching And Virtures Of Motherhood Hard To Mix

By M. C. Garrott

Two unexpected and unusual visitors flew in last Sunday to participate in the Mother's Day services at First Baptist—a couple of our little feathered friends. With Joe Tom Erwin still on his world cruise and Clell Peterson unavailable, I don't know exactly what species they were. I just know they were a couple of poor, mixed-up birds.

The air conditioning equipment at the church temporarily is inoperable because of a defective part and its anxiously-awaited replacement, and John Williams, who looks after the congregational comfort at the church, had opened the doors real wide early in the day, hoping some of the cool morning air would flow in and cool the sanctuary for the services.

Although it couldn't have been Ray Moore's singing, something attracted the birds and they flew into the church. Then they ran into a problem. They couldn't find their way out.

They got there for the morning service, but only the real early arrivals in the congregation actually were aware of them. They had flown around rather excitedly before the service started, but by the time Dr. Howard Colson of Nashville had launched into his Mother's Day message, they had settled down somewhere in a ceiling niche to listen quietly. One of them must have been a mother.

In the evening, however, only one seemed still around, and he, or she, wasn't still for a moment, flying from one end of the sanctuary to the other throughout the service. If you've never tried to listen to the virtues of motherhood extolled and participate in a bird-watching exercise at the same time, I can assure you it isn't easy.

While handling the announcements and preliminaries at the evening service, Tom Moody, the educational director, couldn't help but comment on the bird circling above. Noting that one seemed to have found its way out, he remarked, "The other must be attending one of the other churches in town this evening."

Apparently, the remaining bird found a way out of the building, because neither of them were around Monday morning.

Murray well could have a budding young checkers champion in 11-year-old Laurie McIntosh.

A 5th grader at the Murray Middle School and daughter of Dwain McIntosh, who works with me in the information and public services office at Murray State, Laurie has taken to checkers like a duck to water.

She loves the popular old game, and has been playing it with her father and classmates at school since before Christmas. And with the way she is improving, she'll be ready for the "courthouse circuit" before you know it.

Laurie plays checkers at every opportunity—at recess, during her lunch hour, on rainy days and almost every afternoon with her dad.

The other day, her grandfather, W. E. McIntosh, was in their home. Mr. McIntosh, 66, is now retired and lives in Reidland when he isn't spending the winter in Ft. Myers, Fla. Laurie has played checkers with him often, and he'd always be nice and let her beat him occasionally, moving into trapped situations intentionally.

But not this time. He soon found Laurie came to play. He made one or two of those generous moves right at the outset, and before he could stroke his chin, Laurie had him boxed in.

Then he began to pull on his chin in earnest and settled down to some serious checking. "What would the fellows back in Florida think?" he thought. "Getting beat by a little 11-year-old girl!"

After two or three hours of this head-to-head combat, they had to call it quits for supper. The score was 4 to 4 in games.

Mr. McIntosh, who has played more than his share of checkers in his day, was amazed at his grand-daughter's unusual ability to "see the board" and to see her moves well ahead of play. He says he doesn't mind her beating him, but he hopes the fellows down in Florida won't hear about it before he goes back next winter.

Javit's Bill Ok's Use Of Marihuana
SENATOR JACOB K. JAVITS (N.Y.) "...I send to the desk for myself, Mr. Cranston, Mr. Brooke and Mr. Nelson for appropriate reference, a bill respecting the decriminalization of personal, private use of marihuana..."

"S.1450 the 'Marihuana Control Act of 1975, would change existing Federal law in that it would no longer be a criminal offense for a person to possess within a private dwelling up to 1 ounce of marihuana for his own use, or for the use of others, so long as it is not possessed with the intent to sell it for profit."

"It would also no longer be a criminal offense to possess in public an amount not to exceed 1 ounce of marihuana, if such possession is incident to a private use and is not with the intent to sell it for profit..."

"Our bill would implement the civil fine approach which has met with demonstrated success in the State of Oregon. In that jurisdiction marihuana offenders are given citations that are processed like traffic tickets. If the approach followed the Oregon and in the bill we introduce today were adopted throughout the Nation, 90 per cent of all marihuana arrests would be eliminated and...the indiscriminate wrecking of people's lives and careers brought about by these unjust laws would end..."

Isn't It The Truth

by Carl Riblet Jr.

The federal government, in one of its more idiotic efforts to get rid of money, is funding some researchers who are attempting to find out why people fail in love. The answer is obvious, of course, and needs no research. As everybody knows, people fail in love because they are nuts about each other. What the country needs is some research that will find out why people hate each other.

Cuban Capital Worlds Apart From Other Cities

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Only an hour's flying time from Miami, the Cuban capital is a world apart from any other city in the Western Hemisphere.

For a reporter who last saw the island 20 years ago, Fidel Castro's new Cuba is a startling experience.

Long gone are those once-familiar billboards proclaiming: "Beba Coca Cola," or "Vuela Pan American." There are no advertising agencies on the island — not a single commercial ad in any newspaper, nor on any radio or television show. Only a few scattered billboards discreetly describe the routes of Aeroflot, the Soviet airline.

In place of commercials, the Cuban media bombard the populace with exhortations to work harder, produce more, to rally behind the Communist party and to waste nothing.

These outward signs catch the eye instantly in Cuba. More difficult to comprehend are the inward signs of the "new Cuban man." In 16 years of rule, the Castro regime has managed to submerge the individual's own welfare into a cog of the collective wheel.

Since Castro seized power in 1959, 600,000 Cubans have fled the island. But the 9 million who remain exhibit a spirit of pride and patriotic fervor which must explain their willingness to endure the years of shortages suffered by an island isolated for more than a decade from most of the world except the Soviet bloc.

Cuba is a youth society. Almost half of the nation is under 20 years of age, knowing no other government than that of Castro. The revolution heaps its scant resources on educating its youth and convincing them of its socialistic way of life.

Everywhere you go, teachers, factory foremen, agricultural planners, editors of newspapers, movie producers and baseball managers all speak of life in Cuba as if everything began in 1959.

They say with pride that since the revolution Cuba has achieved successes in every field, wiping out illiteracy, tripling the number of students in schools, doubling steel production, and providing free medical and dental care for all.

They have a good word for nobody before Castro's revolution but Jose Marti and his heroic exploits against Spanish colonial rule and the founders of the Communist party who laid the seeds for the guerrilla campaign which Castro and his aides waged from the Sierra Maestra mountains.

One encounters sharp contrasts in Havana. People line up patiently with their ration coupons to buy food and clothes. Some workers wait in line an hour just to buy a newspaper, which costs five cents.

On Sundays the papers publish readers' letters, some of which voice criticism of life in Cuba such as poor service in a restaurant. In one recent case workers aired their complaints about a cafe which, according to one journalist, promptly "shaped up."

On Saturday nights Havana's luxury hotels are jammed with what could pass for a new affluent youth class. In rooms once graced by one-armed bandits and gaming tables, couples dance to Cuban rhythms. In a bar where a daiquiri costs the equivalent of $2, a pianist plays the theme song from "Love Story" and other tunes from the United States.

One wonders where they get the money. Most students get 30 pesos a month — about $24 — and all are kept busy in "productive work" 25 hours a week outside the classroom.

Young Cubans are well dressed. Young men wear open-necked sport shirts and slacks. Despite the beards worn by Castro and his fellow guerrillas, Cuba's youth is clean-shaven. Girls wear miniskirts.

There appears to be no drug problem and there are no drunks on the streets. Like other socialist states, Cuba is a puritanical society where no X-rated movies or literature are permitted. The most popular Hollywood movie in recent months was "The Godfather," but most U.S. films here are of an older vintage, such as "Hud" with Paul Newman.

No one can be fired and everyone is required by law to work or study between the ages of 16 and 60. Doctors can earn $480 a month, while journalists get about $165 and workers in the steel mills about $120.

The government has evolved an elaborate "bonus" plan which brings throngs of workers to the night spots.

On Saturdays and Sundays the famed Tropicana nightclub is turned over to workers who for their production achievements have been awarded a night on the town by their unions, paying half price to see the elaborate floor show at Havana's most famous club.

At the Havana Riviera a master of ceremonies entertained a delegation of women wearing t-shirts proclaiming their membership in the "millionaire club" — not for dollars but for cutting more than a million "arobas" of sugar in the cane fields which are the lifeblood of Cuba. An arroba is about 25 pounds of sugar.

Dozens of freighters are anchored in the harbor waiting for a berth. The docks are jammed with vessels of the Soviet Union, Japan, Greece, Canada and other nations engaged in a flourishing trade with an island afflicted by shortages in everything.

Recent visits by Sens. George McGovern, D-S.D., Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., have sparked moves in Congress to end the 15-year-old trade embargo against the island. Castro's main goal is to mechanize the harvesting of sugar and the best equipment is manufactured in Illinois.

There is no visible resistance to the Castro regime, but one observer who has visited Cuba many times said some older farmers have refused to sell their property to the government. Their plots are small, and the officials leave these holdouts alone.

"They'll just wait for the oldtimers to die off," the observer said. "They expect to be able to deal much easier with the children. There's tremendous pressure on the kids to conform. New towns are sprouting up near the farms, with modern low-cost housing siphoning away many of the farmers into the apartments where they enjoy plumbing, refrigerators and television sets."

"When those youngsters of the holdouts have to continue living in huts and sleeping on mud floors they begin to wonder and there is an almost irresistible urge for them to rebel against their parents and join the system."

Funny World

LAW

There were only two judges in the small town, and they both had been arrested for speeding, so they decided to try each other. The first judge sat in the judge's chair and asked, "How do you plead?" "Guilty," replied the second judge. "The court fines you five dollars," said the first judge. Then they changed places and the second judge asked the plea. "Guilty," came the answer. The second judge said, "These cases are becoming too common — I'm giving you a $20 fine and one week in jail."

Our heartfelt sympathy this week goes to a cab driver who picked up a woman who directed him to make an illegal turn on Park Ave. He said he'd get a ticket. "Never mind," said the woman in a hurry. "I'll fix it. My husband is a judge." So the cabbie takes the turn, and sure enough, here came the cop. "I know what I did," said the cabbie, "but this lady tells me her husband is a judge." Without comment the cop wrote out a ticket. The woman grabbed the ticket and assured the cabbie that her husband, the judge, would fix everything. The cabbie gave his address. Two days later the ticket came to him in the mail with a note from the lady. "I can't do anything. My husband says he is an honest judge." (Bob Sylvester, N. Y. News)

Let's Stay Well

Alcohol And The Teen-Ager

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

BLASINGAME

Teen-age drinking of alcohol mounts as a social problem. It has become the "in" thing to do. Alcohol abuse appears to be surpassing narcotics as our primary concern.

The trouble is not limited to the upper years in high school. Even students as young as those in the fifth grade are having a problem with alcohol.

According to U. S. News & World Report magazine, half of the high school pupils across the country drink alcohol at least once a month. Six out of 10 teen-agers admit having taken an excess of alcohol, to the point of drunkenness, and one in 20 is probably drunk once a week.

Such practices show that alcohol is widely and easily available to young persons. Permissiveness in this regard can be measured by noting that 37 states allow persons under 21 years of age to buy alcohol.

Alcoholic drinks are expensive. Somehow, teen-agers are managing to get the money to purchase such beverages. It is time for more parents to question their children about the expenditure of their allowance, even money intended for a school lunch.

A need for cash to buy a drink may lead to stealing or other crimes.

The young are known to be risky automobile drivers, especially teen-age boys. Driver risks skyrocket with the use of alcohol.

Parental example is important. Drinking by mother and father at home exhibits a permissiveness to the children, much as does smoking cigarettes.

"Like father, like son" is known to apply in alcoholism.

In addition to home influences, it is time to emphasize educational programs for the young by school faculties and by parent-teacher organizations working with the school authorities.

Alcohol is a toxic drug and can damage the health of the young in both mind and body.

Q Mrs. T. K. says that she keeps reading about salmonella infections and wants to know the symptoms.

A This group of germs (bacteria) are named after an American pathologist, Daniel Salmon. They include typhoid, paratyphoid and less toxic bacteria that grow in food, which may be eaten and produce food poisoning — giving rise to fever, headache, cramps, nausea and vomiting and diarrhea.

Q Mr. N. E. asks whether certain positions during sleep are more healthful than others, especially for an older person.

A Regardless of age, sleep in any position that is comfortable. We change position numerous times during a night's sleep.

Trimble Investigation Is Continuing

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A state medical examiner is now putting the time of Marcia Trimble's death on or about the time she was first reported missing, a Nashville newspaper said in its editions today.

In a final autopsy report, Dr. Jerry T. Francisco of Memphis has reversed himself for the second time on when the 9-year-old girl was killed, The Tennessee quoted sources in the investigation as saying.

Marcia's body was found in the garage of a neighbor here on Easter Sunday following a 33-day search. Officials said the girl, who disappeared on Feb. 25 while delivering Girl Scout cookies to a different neighbor, was strangled to death.

Francisco first said he believed Marcia died about the time she disappeared. Later he put the time of death about a week to 10 days before her body was discovered. That opinion was backed by Metro

Medical Examiner M.A. Petrone.

At issue is whether the girl was kept alive for more than two weeks following her abduction.

Francisco would not comment on the newspaper's report. He confirmed that he has sent his final autopsy report and findings to Metro Nashville police.

Hollenbach Plans To Visit Newspapers

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — Jefferson County Judge Todd Hollenbach says he plans to visit several newspaper editors with a "portfolio of position papers" and copies of his income tax forms.

Hollenbach, challenging Gov. Julian Carroll for the Democratic nomination for a full term indicated one motive for doing so would be to show the contrast between Carroll and him on important issues.

"I honestly believe that for the first time in a governor's race, issues will be the major thing," the 35-year-old candidate told a reporter.

He said Carroll has insisted there are no issues in the primary, "which is the most preposterous thing I ever heard."

Hollenbach, an acknowledged underdog in the primary, has accused the governor of evading legitimate issues and shunning public debate with him.

Carroll in turn has implied that Hollenbach is not following his example of making his tax returns public.

Hollenbach reported Monday at Henderson that "I question at times people who have to go around telling people how honest they are."

The judge wound up the first day of what he calls "the home stretch battle" by visiting Henderson, Hopkinsville and Ashland where he appeared on a program of a citizens advisory council pushing for more money for education.

"Never in my lifetime have the governor, lieutenant governor or house speaker taken a leadership role in education," he said.

Until that happens, he added, elementary and secondary public schools will remain "the stepchild in the system."

Hollenbach repeated his suggestion for a council on elementary and secondary education similar to the Council on Public Higher Education.

He asserted in a radio talk show in Henderson that he has more administrative experience than counts than Carroll.

Hollenbach had been taking "walking tours" of various Kentucky cities dressed in khakis and a wind-breaker. Monday he donned a suit and tie for the final two weeks of the campaign.

After presiding this morning over the session of Jefferson County Fiscal Court, Hollenbach planned to visit an unspecified number of newspaper editors.

There was no firm schedule.

Tiger Golfers Win Region Tourney

Murray High's Gary Sullivan Gets Second In Individual Competition

By LEE STEWART & MIKE BRANDON
The Domino Theory is coming true.

You know, that's the theory in political science about how one country after another falls in line and...

The same thing is happening at Murray High School.

First it was the basketball team, then the football team and now, the Tiger golf team has joined the act.

They are falling into a line of success and that success has led all three teams up the trail to the State Tournament.

The Tiger golf team became the third team at Murray High in the past 15 months to make the State Tournament as they won the Regional crown at Mayfield.

Playing on a windy and wet

Mayfield Golf and Country Club course, the Tigers made the turn three strokes ahead of the pack. And when they got to the clubhouse, jubilation broke out as they discovered they had won the tourney.

The Tigers shot a team score of 312, the lowest total shot in the Region since the 1971 Paducah Tilghman team won the State Tournament. In second place with 314 was host Mayfield while Lone Oak was a distant third with 325.

Other team scores were: Tilghman 329, Hickman County 337, St. Mary 340, Fort Campbell 352, Christian County 354, Hopkinsville, 355, Marshall County 357, Caldwell County 361, Calloway County 363, Ballard Memorial 374, Fulton City 387, Carlisle County 398 and Trigg County 426.

The entire Tiger team as well as runnerup Mayfield will be playing in the State Tournament at Fort Knox on May 20 and May 21. The following week, the top eight individuals from all of the Regions in the state will be playing at Fort Knox in the individual State Tourney.

Two members of the Tigers will be playing in both tourneys. Senior Lee Stewart and sophomore Gary Sullivan both finished in the top eight individuals and will be going to the latter tourney.

Individual honors went to Carlisle County's Greg Carter, who was a standout basketball player for the Regional champion Comets this past cage season.

Carter fired a 34-39 to post a three-over par 73.

The battle for second place was between Gary Sullivan of the Tigers and St. Mary star Russ Cochran. And Sullivan got the best of it by winning a playoff with a par on the second playoff hole.

Sullivan made the turn in 33, one under. The front nine at Mayfield is a par 34 while the backside is a par 36, making a total par of 70.

But on the back side, Sullivan had bogeys on 11, 12, 13 and 14 and also bogeyed the last hole.

Had not Sullivan three-putted the 18th hole, he could have won the individual championship. But it would have taken a 30-foot putt to have done the trick.

Sullivan's 74 paced the Tigers while Stewart shot a 37-39 for a 76 total and finished in fourth place in the individual scoring.

Howard Boone shot a 39-41 for an 80 while Tim Philpot rounded out the Tiger scoring with a 38-44 for an 82.

For runnerup Mayfield, Sonny "Hoot" Gibson and Jon Stanley each had 78's. Both will be playing in the individual state tourney. Jeff Boyd carded a 79 as did Robert Creason.

For third place Lone Oak, Jim Day had a 76, Darryl Mullen a 79, Kenny Perry 82 and John Felkner 88. Paducah Tilghman was fourth. Scores for the Blue Tornado included Tim Lambert 77, Brooks Watson 79, Chip Sloan 83 and Robert Mason 90.

The top individuals in order were: Carter 73, Sullivan 74, Cochran 74, Stewart 76, Day 76, Lambert 77, Gibson 78 and Stanley 78.

On the second playoff hole between Cochran and Sullivan, Cochran wound up on the fringe in two. He first putt was six feet short and his next putt rimmed the cup. After that, he tapped in for a bogey.

Meanwhile, Sullivan hit a good six-iron approach just to the right of the green. With an eight-iron, he chipped to within five feet of the hole and sunk the par-four putt giving him second place in the tourney.

Just last Friday, the Tigers finished third in a triangular meet at Mayfield against the hosts and Paducah Tilghman. And that made the win in the Regional even more sweeter.

"We got a real fine team effort from everybody," Tiger Coach Ty Holland said. "We were particularly glad to beat Mayfield on their own course," the veteran coach added.

Last year, St. Mary won the team title with a 325, 13 strokes more than the Tigers posted Monday. It was the first Regional title for Murray High since 1969.

Laker Golfers Finish Season At Regional

By ANTHONY FIKE

The Calloway County Laker golf team ended its season Monday with the Regional Tournament at Mayfield.

The Lakers closed out the season with a record of five wins and six losses.

Kevin D'Angelo led the Lakers at Mayfield with an 84 on the par 70 course. He shot a 44 on the front side and birdied the last two holes to shoot a 40 on the back.

Bobby Fike carded a 91 while Joe Janacek shot 93 and Anthony Fike had a 95.

This was the second season for golf at Calloway County and it has brought the team much experience. Every member of the team will be returning next year.

Coach Larry Paschall and all the team members of the Lakers would like to offer their congratulations to the Murray High golfers on a fine season and wish them the best of luck at the State Tournament.

Captains

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Star quarterback Charlie Baggett will be one of Michigan State's three football captains this fall, it was announced Monday.

Serving with Baggett will be defensive tackle Greg Schaum and defensive end Otto Smith. All are seniors.

Pep Talk From Byron Nelson Was Big Help For Tom Watson

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

AP Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Golf immortal Byron Nelson helped young Tom Watson in the 25-year-old's darkest hour after blowing the U.S. Open last year and Watson used the advice to capture Nelson's own tournament.

"I was crying in my beer after shooting a 79 in the final round," Watson said. "I was leading by a shot going into the final day and just blew it. My game just came apart."

Watson, a Stanford graduate, said the only sympathy he got was from his wife, Linda, and Nelson.

"He took me aside and said 'I like your golf swing but the tempo can be improved and you don't use your legs as well as you should,'" said Watson of Nelson's pep talk.

"I appreciated it very much because he was right and he also moved my hands ahead on my irons so I have better control with them," said Watson, who earned a $35,000 first prize Monday with a record-tying 15-under par 269 over the Par 71 Preston Trail Course.

Watson shot a final round six-under-par 65 to catch and pass third-round leaders Rod Funseth, Bob Easterwood and Bruce Crampton, who faded in the sauna-like heat.

Bob E. Smith, who fired a final-round 67, earned the biggest check of his career, $19,950 for a second-place finish, two shots back. Jack Ewing was third, also shooting 67, for $12,425 third-place money.

Watson and his wife were overjoyed with his second tournament victory. In 1974, Watson won the Western Open.

They turned $1,000 of their winnings over to the Salesmanship Club, a charity for underprivileged boys, who sponsor the $175,000 Byron Nelson Classic.

Nelson had predicted before the tournament that Watson would win it although the 5-foot-9, 160-pound red-haired shotmaker choked here last year. Watson dumped a ball in the water on the 67th hole while dueling in a head-to-head deadlock with Buddy Allin to lose.

"I was thinking about last year on the 14th tee," Watson said. "I said to myself 'Now don't do what you did last year.'"

Watson birdied four holes on the back nine, ramming home a 16-footer to sack up the tournament on the 16th hole.

Johnny Miller lost out in his bid to overtake Jack Nicklaus in money winnings for the year. He had to finish at least 27th but was far back in the pack at 281 and earned $844.

Pony League To Hold Its Tryouts

Pony League tryouts will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday at the Pony League diamond at the Murray City Park.

Youngsters must be 13 years of age and not have reached their 15th birthday by July 31. All interested youngsters are urged to attend the tryouts.

Murray Colt League To Be In Jamboree

Colt Leaguers from Murray will be taking part in the Jamboree Night set at Mayfield Saturday.

The event is being billed as a fund-raising project for the Mayfield Little League. All Little League teams from Mayfield in addition to Colt League teams from Mayfield and Murray will be playing scrimmage games.

The Barbecue dinner will start at 4 p.m. at the Little League Park, located on North 17th Street in Mayfield. Donations of one dollar per person are being asked.

The featured speaker at the event will be former major league Lee Thomas. Thomas is a former St. Louis Cardinal and is currently an administrative assistant in the Cardinal front office.

GOLF
DALLAS — Tom Watson shot a final round six-under-par 65 and scored a two-stroke victory over Bob E. Smith in the $175,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic.

Competition Opens Friday

Eastern To Host Spring Championships In OVC

RICHMOND, Ky. — Eastern Kentucky University will host the annual Ohio Valley Conference spring sports championships May 16-17, the first time this event has returned to the EKV campus in nine years.

The final OVC champion in the sports of golf, tennis and track will be decided next weekend with points attained in each sport going toward the all-sports trophy.

Western Kentucky leads the way in the all-sports standings through four sports—baseball, basketball, cross country and football—with 63½ points. Eastern Kentucky is second with 52½ points, followed by Murray State at 52.

Other OVC schools and their all-sports points include: East Tennessee, 43½; Austin Peay, 41; Middle Tennessee, 38; Tennessee Tech, 37; and Morehead State, 32½.

Golf competition begins Friday at 9 a.m. at the 18-hole Arlington Golf Course located on the northern city limits on U.S. 25. Twenty-seven holes will be played both Friday and Saturday. East Tennessee, by virtue of its four spring tournament titles and its ranking in the top 10 in the nation, is the decided favorite for the golf title. Middle Tennessee is the defending champ.

Tennis play will begin at 8 a.m. Friday at the Martin Hall courts on Eastern's campus. Singles' competition will be completed first and then doubles on Saturday.

Western Kentucky leads in regular season points with its total of 56. Regular season points for the other conference schools were: Middle Tennessee, 49; Austin Peay, 41; Tennessee Tech, 32; East Tennessee, 22; Morehead State, 21; Eastern Kentucky, 19; and Murray State, 13.

Austin Peay is the defending tennis champion, capturing its first league title in this sport last year.

The track meet has been divided into two evening sessions on the EKV track, the first beginning Friday at 6 p.m. and the Saturday session scheduled to start at 4 p.m. with the pole vault competition.

Coach Jerry Bean's Hilltoppers will be seeking their 12th consecutive track title and are rated by league coaches a heavy favorite to annex this year's championship.

Admission to each of the three competitions—golf, tennis and track—is free and the public is invited to attend.

Tiger Tennis Team Gets Easy Win Over St. Mary

The Murray High boy's tennis team remained undefeated for the season Monday afternoon as they won a 9-0 shutout match at Paducah St. Mary.

The Tigers, in raising their season record to 7-0, won all of the pro set singles and doubles matches.

In the singles, Kim Trevathan won 8-3 at number one over Kevin Headrick while at number two, Mark Homra won by the same 8-3 score over Richard Hornbeak of St. Mary.

The number three singles found Boyd Walker winning a shutout over John Lansing while at number four, Kevin Ray won an easy 8-4 match over Steve Bartholomew.

Brad Boone won an easy 8-1 match at number five over Gary Hornbeak while at number six, it took a tie-breaker for Craig Shinnars to edge past Marcus Cooper 9-8.

In the number one doubles, Trevathan-Homra slipped past Headrick and Richard Hornbeak by a 9-7 score while at number two, Ray-Boone won 8-3 over Lansing and Bartholomew.

The number three doubles found Shinnars-Walker winning 8-2 over Cooper and Scott Cvergros.

The Tigers will play at home today against Hopkinsville. The Murray High girls, also undefeated, will also be playing Hoptown.

Spain Takes Lead Over Britain In Cup Series

By The Associated Press
Spain nipped Britain to advance in the European Zone Group Davis Cup tennis play, while South Africa, the defending Davis Cup champion, finally found someone who would play.

In Dallas, Mexico's Raul Ramirez and American Brian Gottfried cemented their claim to the World Championship of Tennis doubles title, and the fourth annual Alan King Tennis Classic got underway in Las Vegas.

Manuel Orantes outlasted Roger Taylor to give Spain a 3-2 victory over Britain in their European Zone Group A quarter-final Davis Cup series at Barcelona. Spain will meet Romania in the semifinal round next month in Barcelona.

Chile announced Monday it definitely will play South Africa in the American Zone Davis Cup series. Both Mexico and Colombia have refused to play because of South Africa's racial policies.

Ramirez and Gottfried won what supposed to have been the WCT doubles title last week in Mexico City. But the defending WCT doubles champions, South Africans Bob Hewitt and Frew McMillan, were forced out of that when the Mexican government deported them because of their country's racial policies. Monday night, Ramirez and Gottfried won a dramatic 7-5, 6-3, 4-6, 2-6, 7-5 grudge match over Hewitt and McMillan.

In the fifth and deciding set, the South Africans broke Gottfried's service in the fourth game. But Ramirez and Gottfried broke back in the 10th game when Gottfried made an acrobatic, cross-court backhand winner and a flustered Hewitt dumped a second return of serve into the net for the break. Gottfried then put away the South Africans in a love game.

At Las Vegas, eighth-seeded Rosco Tanner beat Jim McManus in the opening round match of the King Tennis Classic. In the other singles match Monday, Chile's Jaime Fillol edged Tom Gorman 6-4, 7-5.

Parrish Got Thumb And Scanlon Got Chance To Start In Return

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer
Larry Parrish got the thumb, literally and figuratively. So Pat Scanlon got the chance to show what he had. And what he had was more than enough.

"I decided to start Scanlon when I saw Parrish's thumb," Montreal Manager Gene Mauch said. "He's banged up a little."

So Mauch thumbed Parrish out of the starting lineup and Scanlon found himself in it for the first time, playing third base—and playing havoc with Atlanta's pitching.

He drove in four runs, three with his first major league homer, to lead the Expos' 11-1 rout of the Braves Monday night.

In the only other National League games, Los Angeles beat St. Louis 6-4 in 10 innings and New York edged San Francisco 3-2. Cincinnati's game at Philadelphia was rained out.

Scanlon's homer highlighted a five-run third inning against Atlanta's Carl Morton. And he sent a man home with a bases-loaded grounder in a two-run first inning.

Gary Carter also homered for the Expos and Tony Scott chipped in with a two-run single. Steve Rogers picked up his first complete game of the season, scattering eight hits, but lost a shutout when the Braves' Earl Williams led off the ninth with a homer.

"It was surprising, after not playing, but I was comfortable," Scanlon said. "My arm felt good and comfortable, too."

Mel Purcell Wins Title At Houston Tennis Open

Mel Purcell added even more to his already swollen trophy case as the Murray High sophomore racked up two titles over the weekend in Texas at the Houston Open.

Playing with Chad Foster of Lafayette, La., in the doubles, the two combined to win the championship in the 16 and under division. In the singles of the same age group, Purcell had little trouble as he finished off all his opponents in straight sets.

Purcell and Foster, who have played together many times, were the top seed in the doubles and drew a first round bye. In the second round, they won in straight shutout sets over Anigian and Vaandranger, both of Dallas.

The third round found Purcell and Foster taking 6-2, 6-1 wins

T-Ball League Scheduled To Meet Thursday

A T-Ball League organizational meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Council Room at the Murray City Hall.

The meeting is being called by Murray City Parks Director Gary Hohman.

Hohman said the purpose of the meeting is to establish guidelines for the coming season and to fill coaching positions for the teams.

All interested persons who would like to coach in the program are urged to attend the meeting.

You're never certain how you'll feel the first time out. Clearly, he felt fine.

"I talked to Gene. I want to help the team all I can. I want to play, but if my role is pinch-hitting and spot starting, I feel I can do that job, too. Whenever Gene needs me, I'll play. It's just nice to be here and help out the club."

Dodgers 6, Cardinals 4

Tom Paciorek's tie-breaking single in the 10th inning, followed by Rick Auerbach's two-run single, carried Los Angeles past the Cardinals. Steve Garvey and Ron Cey delivered singles off Mike Garman before Paciorek and Auerbach singled to left.

Unbeaten Andy Messersmith appeared headed for his sixth straight victory, despite being weakened by the flu and leaving the game after six innings. But Ken Reitz's single off reliever Jim Brewer tied it in the ninth. Brewer got the victory.

The four-inning stint was Brewer's first appearance since May 3. "This is probably the longest I've pitched in three years," he said. "Although I haven't pitched in a while, that doesn't bother me. I'm the kind of guy who can lay off for two months and still have good control. Control is just confidence."

Mets 3, Giants 2

Joe Torre's three-run double in the seventh inning carried the Mets to their victory and saddled the Giants with their fourth straight loss.

over Partridge and Diraddo, both of Houston. In the quarterfinals, Purcell and Foster won 7-5 and 6-2 over Dan and Paul Weber of League City, Tex.

The only match that gave trouble to Purcell and Foster was in the semifinals. There the two lost the first set 3-6 to Croom and Dawlin of Houston but came back to win the last two and the match 6-2 and 6-1.

In the finals, Purcell and Foster won in straight sets over Mover and Clayton, both of Austin, Tex. The scores were 7-6 and 7-5.

In the singles play, Purcell drew a first round bye then in the second round, won in straight shutout sets over Rex Elmore of Austin. In the quarters, Purcell won 6-2 and 6-1 over Tom Rascoe of Houston.

David Dowlen of Houston was the semifinal victim of Purcell who won the match 6-3 and 6-4. Then in the finals, the top seeded Purcell easily defeated Reid Freeman of Dallas 8-1 and 7-6.

Purcell will be playing next in the Regional Tournament and hopes to compete in his sixth consecutive Kentucky State High School Tournament. After that, he will open his summer tour on June 20 at the Southern Closed Tournament in Mobile, Ala.

TENNIS
DALLAS — Raul Ramirez of Mexico and Brian Gottfried of the United States won the WCT doubles title with a 7-5, 6-3, 4-6, 2-6, 7-5 victory over South Africans Bob Hewitt and Frew McMillan.

Red-Hot Roberts Still Has Streak For Tigers

By LARRY PALADINO
AP Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Dennis Leonard may have the book on Leon Roberts, but he apparently didn't read up on him Monday night.

Instead, Roberts may have forced a rewrite job.

The husky right fielder extended his hitting streak to 14 games—that's every game in which he's played this season—and unloaded a three-run homer off Leonard in the sixth inning to help the Detroit Tigers beat the Kansas City Royals 5-0.

Roberts' fellow rookie Vern Ruhle, with relief help in the eighth inning from John Hiller, got the victory, although the Royals left 15 runners on, two short of the team record.

Kansas City Manager Jack McKeon couldn't quite figure out how Leonard offered up the gopher ball.

"He did not pitch the way we talked about pitching him," McKeon said. "He's got the book on him. Roberts had a tough time against him in the minors."

"As a matter of fact, Leonard knows him so well I asked for his comments on him at the pre-game meeting."

Did Leonard follow his own advice on Roberts?

"No he didn't," McKeon said. "He got behind and couldn't pitch him like he wanted to." Oakland beat Boston 5-3 in the only other American League game.

Roberts seemed almost as surprised as anyone that he got the homer, his third of the season, off Leonard.

"I saw him last year (in the American Association) and he owned me," said the 6-foot-3, 200-pounder. "He was tough on me. I'd say he was the second best pitcher in the league."

While teammate Ron LeFlore teased him about shooting for Joe DiMaggio's record 56-game hitting streak, Roberts explained that it is "almost impossible" not to think of his streak. "But I put it out of my mind once the game starts," he added.

Roberts said playing every day helps his hitting. Asked why he hit well even when he wasn't playing daily, he said: "Because I was coming here at 4 o'clock every day and hitting 75 pitches."

"I'm a fanatic about hitting," he said.

His homer followed a walk and a single by Bill Freehan. Willie Horton contributed a two-out, two-run single in the third for the Tigers.

A's 5, Red Sox 3

Jim Holt's two-run pinch single highlighted a four-run rally in the seventh that carried Oakland to victory. Gene Tenace doubled in the first run of the inning and Bill North singled in the last. Rolie Fingers got the win and Diego Segui took the loss, both in relief. Rico Petrocelli homered for Boston.

WHAT IS FINANCIAL PLANNING?

Has the life insurance salesman's computerized analysis always seemed mystic to you? After asking you 200 questions or so he fills out his form and comes running back in two weeks or so with something that looks nice but you cannot understand it, because you forgot the questions?

Another alternative is a computer report where you can give directly to the computer the necessary input and hear and record the answers yourself in a matter of seconds.

IT IS POSSIBLE

Funerals

Noble Rogers Dies At Home Of Son

Noble Rogers, age 60, formerly of the Lynn Grove community, died Thursday, May 8, at the home of a son, Donald Rogers, Mt. Juliet, Tenn.

The body was transferred by airplane to Detroit, Mich., where funeral services were held. Burial was in the Clinton Grove Cemetery there.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Lola Wilson Rogers; two sons, Donald of Mt. Juliet, Tenn., and Kenneth of Detroit, Mich.; one sister, Mrs. Lohie Fitch of Detroit, Mich.; two brothers, J. D. Rogers of Murray and R. B. Rogers of Cape Coral, Fla.

Dr. C. D. Wilder, Father Of Murray Man, Dies Friday

Dr. C. D. Wilder, retired physician of Paris, Tenn., died Friday at his home in Sarasota, Fla. He was 82 years of age.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Alice Tish Wilder; one son, Cleo Wilder of Murray; two grandsons, Bill Wilder in the United States Navy at Meridian, Miss., and Bob Wilder of Murray.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Perry, Fla., with burial in the City Cemetery there. The family has suggested that memorial gifts may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Wilder was an ear, nose and throat specialist who resided in Paris, Tenn., from 1930 until 1961 when he retired to Sarasota. He was an avid sports fan and excelled in tennis and baseball. In his retirement he continued to play tennis daily. On his eightieth birthday he was interrupted by surprise party given by his tennis friends and presented with a plaque in recognition of his contribution to tennis there by the Mayor of Sarasota.

Carroll Campaigns In Southeast Region Today

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Gov. Julian Carroll brought his campaign to Southeastern Kentucky today, with his schedule calling for visits to several mountain towns by helicopter.

On Monday, the governor started his campaign with an early morning radio show at Madisonville, in the Western Kentucky coal field. He spent the rest of the day touring Central Kentucky and stopped at Cynthiana, Paris and Georgetown to shake hands and talk to townspeople.

The day of campaigning ended with a reception and dinner in Lexington.

Speaking from the Bourbon County courthouse steps, the governor told about 50 supporters that his campaign is unique because "for the first time in 24 years, a governor is running for governor."

Carroll, who succeeded Gov. Wendell Ford, is seeking the Democratic nomination to retain the governorship.

Carroll said the fact that he "is governor first, candidate second" makes a big difference in how his campaign is run.

"My campaign is based on performance," he said. "My opponents can make promises as reckless as they like because they're never going to be governor."

Later at a 6th District rally in Lexington, Carroll told several hundred supporters that he practices "new politics."

The governor challenged his opponents to make public their income tax returns, saying their reluctance to do so shows the difference between the new politics and the old politics.

At the Paris appearance, Carroll said education will be a top priority if he retains the office.

Four Murray Persons Granted Degrees, University, Louisville

Four persons from Murray have received their degrees from the University of Louisville School of Medicine, according to releases from the school.

Beverly Goode Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Goode, 1509 Dudley Drive, Murray, received her M. D. degree and was elected into Alpha Omega Alpha honor medical society. She will take her internship at Grady Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga.

William Glen Hart, son of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hart, 108 North Eighth Street, Murray, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine and will take his post-graduate work at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.

Russell E. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Rudolph Howard, 109 Williams Avenue, Murray, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine and will also take his post-graduate work at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.

Rev. Hart To Speak At Calvary Temple

Rev. Bill Hart will be the guest speaker at the Calvary Temple Pentecostal Church of God on Wednesday, May 14, at 7:30 p.m., according to Rev. Paul Wanger, pastor of the church.

The guest speaker is pastor of the Goshen and Lynn Grove United Methodist Churches.

He had the same personality then as he does now — he's just a good old country boy," Bryant said, "but he's had a good education and he's smart."

Also at Paris, the governor was presented a gift "for the new baby" by 8-year-old Camden Clay. The package contained a pink knitted baby hat.

Mrs. Carroll is expecting a baby.

Congress Moving Toward Approval Of Funds For Vietnamese Refugees

WASHINGTON (AP) — Responding to urgent pleas from Ford administration officials, Congress is moving toward approval by the end of the week of funds for transporting and resettling South Vietnamese and Cambodian refugees.

Among an array of congressional actions on the refugees, the House Appropriations Committee was meeting today to vote on a $405-million money bill. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved an authorization bill for that amount by a 13-0 vote Monday afternoon.

Meanwhile, a review of problems involved in the resettlement of an estimated 130,000 Indochina refugees in the United States was scheduled today by the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on refugees.

The Senate Appropriations subcommittee on foreign operations was considering President Ford's request for $507 million for refugee assistance in an afternoon hearing today.

Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the panel adopted a $405-

Huddleston Wants Kentucky Included In National Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Walter "Dee" Huddleston, D-Ky., says he wants to have Kentucky included in a program to install national weather warning systems.

Huddleston said the Commerce Department's 1976 budget includes a request for $3.6 million to expand the system into 46 site locations.

"I pledge my efforts within the Appropriations Committee to see that Kentucky is included in the budget," he said during a meeting Monday.

On hand were representatives of Kentucky's telephone systems and Dr. Harold Scott, head of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's weather warning system.

The VHF-FM system is aimed at providing instantaneous warning of potentially disastrous weather conditions. It would require leasing of telephone company equipment in areas where transmitters are located.

Suspicious men nabbed in Sweden

STOCKHOLM — Two Japanese men about 25 years old and carrying forged passports have been detained here after being observed sketching and photographing a building containing six foreign embassies.

Security police said the men also had photographed everyone entering and leaving the building during a two-hour period.

New officers for the Student Council at Murray High School include President Linda Ransom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ransom; Vice-President Lisa Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Jones; Secretary Janey Flora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Flora; and Treasurer Jan Outland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Outland. The new officers were installed in assembly Tuesday morning. Mrs. Jane Fitch and Mr. Mark Brady are sponsors of the organization. Outgoing officers were President Nancy Fitch, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fitch; Vice-President Mike Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Alexander; Secretary Becky Sams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sams; and Treasurer Linda Ransom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ransom.

Farm Groups Rounding Up Votes To Override Veto Of Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Veteran dairy lobbyists and a former Agriculture Department official hired by farm groups have been rounding up House votes to override President Ford's veto of a farm bill.

Opponents predicted they would still win by 20 votes today on the vote to override or sustain Ford's May 1 veto. A two-thirds majority of those voting is needed to override.

Ford called the legislation "an example of increased non-essential spending" that would go beyond his fiscal 1976 budget, which calls for a $60 billion deficit. He accepted Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz's estimates that the costs of the bill were open-ended and would mean at least $1.8 billion more in deficit spending.

Sponsors of the one-year measure, who did not include the outlay for production loans that would be repaid, estimated the net cost to the government at $210 million. Only negligible effects on retail food prices were foreseen.

For 1975 crops, the bill would increase target prices and loan rates on wheat by 51 per cent, corn by 63 per cent, and cotton by about 18 per cent.

It would mandate dairy-product price supports at 80 per cent of parity with quarterly readjustments according to changes in production costs. It also would establish for this season a loan program for soybeans.

Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., says arm-twisting has been plentiful since Ford's veto.

For instance, "H. Willis Tibler, veteran lobbyist for the National Milk Producers Federation, is busily pacing the corridors trying to milk some override votes from members who previously voted against the bill," he said.

The measure first passed the House March 20 by a 259-162 vote. Six days later, the Senate passed a much broader and more liberal version, 57 to 25.

The final bill, only slightly different from the original House draft, then passed the Senate without objection April 17 and was approved by the House 248 to 166, 28 votes short of two-thirds needed to override the veto if the same number of congressmen were voting.

Harold G. Beaman Attending Meeting

Harold G. Beaman, Administrator of West View Nursing Home, left Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of the Board of Governors of the National Association of Boards of Nursing Home Administrators in Reno, Nevada.

Beaman is presently chairman of the Board of the Kentucky Licensure Board of Nursing Home Administration and being a Governor on the National Board is representing the Kentucky Board at this meeting. He has been a member of the Licensure Board since 1970 and has been chairman for the past two years.

A life-long resident of Murray, he resides on Johnson Blvd. with his wife, Betty, and children, Charles and Carol.

Kathleen A. Rowlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rowlett of Murray, has been chosen by a faculty committee at the University of Arizona, Tucson, for the recipient of an award for Meritorious Performance in Teaching. She was presented with a full-sized Unabridged Webster's dictionary with an appropriate note of recognition signed by President John P. Schaefer in special ceremonies at the school. Miss Rowlett, a graduate of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, teaches physical education at the University of Arizona.
